RISK COMMUNICATION SAVES LIVES & LIVELIHOODS

In a pandemic or other public health emergency, risk communication is essential for stopping disease spread & responding to fear & unrest.

RISK COMMUNICATION fights disease & protects economies

- Stops spread of illness & saves lives
- Protects livestock & livelihoods
- Prevents travel & trade restrictions
- Protects economic development

Find out more www.who.int/health-risk-communication/en/

Get in touch
sepis@who.int