Be smart. Don’t start.

One person dies every six seconds from tobacco

Tobacco and excessive alcohol increase your risk of high blood pressure and heart diseases.

2.5 million people die from alcohol each year

Blood pressure – take control