Zika virus

Zika is a disease vectored by Aedes mosquitoes. It is transmitted to humans through the bite of an infected mosquito.

Symptoms:
- Fever
- Conjunctivitis
- Rash
- Joint pain

Prevention:
- Avoid mosquito bites by using insect repellent, clothing, and screens.
- Monitor for symptoms and seek medical attention if infected.

Zika can cause Guillain-Barré syndrome in pregnant women.